

RESEARCH SEMINARS 2016-17

CEPA coordinates a variety of research programmes which investigate issues ranging from early years to higher and lifelong education, from philosophy of education to teacher education. As with the University as a whole, CEPA has a strong commitment to social justice and social activism.

19 October	The Manifesto for Post critical Philosophy. Co-sponsored by CEPA and PESGB. Contributors: Dr Naomi Hodgson, Dr Joris Vlieghe, Dr Piotr Zamojski, Professor Tyson Lewis University of North Texas) Dr Olga Ververi, Dr Daniel O'Neill, Dr Geert Thyssen (LJMU)	Eden 006 2-4pm
23 November	British Values Colloquium. Examining the theorising, mediating and enactment of citizenship policy in schools. Contributors: Dr Phil Bamber, Andrea Bullivant, Dr Joseph Maslen, Asli Kandemir	Eden 006 2-4pm
11 January	Enhancing student engagement and identity through collaborative learning. Contributors: Dr Cathal O'Siochru, Dr Namrata Rao, Dr Frank Su, Dr David Menendez-Alvarez (MMU)	Eden 006 2-4pm
22 February	A meritocratic marketplace? Character, widening access and the concept of academic aspiration in UK education policy discourse. Dr Joseph Maslen, Dr Konstanze Spohrer	Eden 006 2-4pm
29 March	Marginalisation in Higher Education: Racial Micro-agressions in HE. Remi Salisbury (University of Leeds); Marginalising post-92 universities in doctoral funding policy. Dr Richard Budd.	Eden 006 2-4pm
26 April	Migration and academic acculturation: Perspectives of the migrant academics. Contributors: Dr Anesa Hosein (University of Surrey), Dr Henry Kum, Dr Namrata Rao and Dr Judith Enriquez (Liverpool John Moores University).	Eden 006 2-4pm
24 May	Hope Challenge: School University Partnerships in a self-improving system. Dr Claire Lloyd.	Eden 006 2-4pm

Affiliate of the International Association for Qualitative Enquiry

<http://cepa.hope.ac.uk/>